According to the Turkish Directorate General of Migration Management, there are currently over 3.6 million Syrians Under Temporary Protection in Turkey who fled as a result of the ongoing conflict. Since March 2012, IOM Turkey has been part of a coordinated effort of UN Agencies, NGOs and government partners, providing humanitarian assistance including basic health and social services to help migrants, refugees and the host community live a better and more stable life. Through strong partnerships with municipalities across 17 provinces, IOM's initiatives are fostering greater social cohesion among migrants, refugees and host communities. Through these efforts, IOM is actively developing the capacity of government partners to create sustainable solutions for managing migration in Turkey.
